BY TRADITION AND PASSION, FOR OVER 40 YEARS

ViviCosì, from International Food, founded by the Gallo family in Santarcangelo di Romagna, has been in constant evolution for over 40 years, experimenting and developing innovative products with passion and dedication. Mindful of sustainability, we make daily decisions respecting nature and use efficient and green technology to produce plant-based beverages from any raw material.

A photograph showing a pile of almonds at the top and a pile of hemp seeds at the bottom, both on a white background. The almonds are whole and light brown, while the hemp seeds are small and green.

HIGHEST QUALITY INGREDIENTS

Our commitment is based on selectively sourced high-quality raw materials, with a focus on the integrity of whole grains, partnerships with reliable farmers, an efficient supply chain for freshness and sustainability, and an innovative extraction method to preserve the natural essence.

- ✓ STRICTLY SELECTED RAW MATERIALS
- ✓ USE OF WHOLE GRAINS (NO FLOURS)
- ✓ TRUSTED FARMERS
- ✓ SHORT SUPPLY CHAIN
- ✓ UNIQUE EXTRACTION METHOD

HEALTHY LIFESTYLE - EVERYDAY

“Indulge in the pure essence of health with the exquisite range of plant-based beverages, spreads, and cooking creams from VivìCosi.

Crafted with the finest whole grains and nuts, our products are not only bursting with flavor but also fortified with essential vitamins, minerals, and calcium. Moreover, they are naturally lactose-free!”

Our Beverages

Our plant-based beverages are an excellent alternative to cow's milk and are perfect for any time of the day – from breakfast to dinner, and ideal for snacking!

Our carefully curated selection features the delicate notes of soy, the rich textures of rice, the nutty essence of almond, the tropical touch of coconut, and the abundant health benefits of oats.

The ViviCosi lineup is a testament to diversity and taste, ensuring a combination for every palate.
